

Brian Wick

VICE PRESIDENT OF MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS

Brian Wick has over 25 years of business management and leadership experience, including a decade in philanthropic executive roles. A skilled marketing and communications professional, Brian has worked across industries in Japan, Korea, Mexico, and the U.S., promoting products ranging from specialty chemicals to financial services.

He began his career as a writer with Gannett Publications before founding his own marketing practice, assisting small businesses and politicians. Brian has worked with two Fortune 100 companies, supporting senior leadership with marketing strategies and communications.

In the philanthropic sector, Brian led programs connecting veterans, military spouses, and caregivers to technology roles and quality career paths, building a portfolio of 10 nonprofits and expanding initiatives to underserved populations.

A U.S. Army veteran, Brian has dedicated over 20 years to supporting the military community. He also serves as an elected Fire Commissioner and trustee at InfoAge Science and History Museums. Brian holds an MBA from Centenary University and a BA in Political Science and History from Monmouth University.
